DCEO WELCOMES A NEWLY APPOINTED DIRECTOR-GENERAL

The Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences starts the month of July by welcoming a newly appointed Director-General following termination of the former Director-General Adv. Borotheo Matsoso's contract in June 2019. The Directorate has been under supervision of Chief anti-corruption Prosecutor Adv. Sefako Seema who was acting as the Director-General for 3 months, following Adv Matsoso's absence on leave.

Attorney Moses Mahlomola Manyokole commenced his duties at the DCEO on the 8 July 2019, he was a former Head Litigation Officer at DA SILVA Manyokole Attorneys from 2012 to 2013, he then became a Litigation Officer of Lesotho Revenue Authority from 2013 to 2015, whilst in 2015 to 2019 he became the Head of Debt Management and Debt Recovery department. Attorney Manyokole was then appointed acting Commissioner Enforcement in 2018.
